ANOTHER REASON FOR REPUBLICAN SUCCESS.

How fortunes in useful materials are being permitted to go to waste in army warehouses while the public cries for them in vain, how wanton extravagance continues to mark purchases for the war department, how favorite privilege is allowed by the Democratic administration to reap golden harvests through army sales is revealed in a report when the New York Herald had investigated and found to be supported by an abundance of evidence. Just how much profiteers have made through selling articles to the government already in stock in great abundance and through the purchase of "surplus" stock at ridiculously low rates and subsequent resales at enormous profits, it would be impossible to estimate. In New York a favored "wrecker" bought 100,000 raincoats at a cost of 25 cents each, according to the admissions of their own employees, and resold them at $2.50 each. A favored lady broker bought from the fireproof supply base 250,000 packages of study at a price of 1 cent each, and resold them to dealers at a price many times his investment.

But this is only one phase of what the investigation uncovered. In this same supply base at Brooklyn is enough varnish and paint to decorate all the interiors in the United States, enough nails to supply the whole building trade, and an enormous supply of tools of all kinds, some of which are not obtainable on the market. The release of these supplies might do much toward helping in the present housing shortage. Electrical supplies of all sorts are lying around in profusion, and these after floor is crammed with food-stuffs which might well be needed in these times of high prices and scarcity. Discussion of this sort of things is not relished by the Democrats. They don't like to be shown the shortcomings of their administration, but these extravaganzas must be stopped and it is evident that there is nothing of stopping them as long as the Democratic party is in control. A safe, sane policy, such as is promised only by the Republican party, must be put into effect before the people of the United States can expect any relief from this extravagance. Happily such relief is in sight in the election of Harding and Coolidge, which is admitted by practically everybody who has followed the campaigns. In order to make this relief effective, the voters of this state should see to it that the Republican president and vice-president have the support of a Republican senate and house. The American people want no more of Democratic extravagance. They want Republican economy, and the best way to secure this is to vote for Tasker L. Oddie and Samuel S. Arantz.

HENDERSON AND THE OIL LEASING BILL

Throughout Nevada there are many prospectors and locators of oil lands who made their locations in good faith and went ahead securing capital to put down wells, found at the last minute that their locations were void, due to the land leasing bill which was passed in the interest of the Standard Oil company and the other big corporations. Senator Henderson permitted this bill to pass in the senate without a protest, and the locators found that their labor and work had been for naught. When meetings of oil men were held in Tonopah, Ely and Fallon and Mr. Henderson was wired concerning the state of affairs, well do the oil locators remember the answer that came back that he was investigating and thought everything would be all right. Up to the present the poor prospector has virtually lost all his holdings because he was unable to secure a $1000 surety bond for his application and permit to hold the ground that he had surveyed and filed upon. If there is a prospector or miner who could vote for Charles Henderson, who has claimed that he has always been alert to their interests and the mineral interests of Nevada and at the same time allows bills like the land leasing bill to slip through. Mr. Henderson during the campaign has made many gaudy promises to the mining and oil men of this state, but do not forget that he made similar promises two years ago. He forgot all about them after that election. Is it not likely that he will forget all about his promises after this election, if he is successful?

MR. THATCHER DODGES.

George Thatcher well deserves the name of the "artful dodger." Many of those who heard his speech last evening hoped that he would explain about the State Bank receivership, but George dodged the question. He attempted to explain his dodging by the inference that the question was not a proper one, but inasmuch as certain Democrats are attempting to besmirch the name of Tasker L. Oddie in connection with that receivership it would seem that Mr. Thatcher should have told his part in the affair.

The question still remains unanswered why Mr. Thatcher and the Democrats through six years of uninterrupted administration have not accounted for the people's money that was appropriated to investigate this affair and why this monstrous receivership was never ventilated in the courts and the guilty parties sent to the penitentiary.

Those citizens of the United States who are unhappy because the peace treaty and covenant were not signed, sealed and delivered must understand every purpose they had was defeated by Woodrow Wilson, whether Mr. Wilson's head was filled with dreams of personal power or with something else.

He began his work of ruin when he made up his mind to make the treaty single-handed. He was determined to ignore the senate. He blended the peace treaty and covenant in order to compel compliance with his wishes. The first time he came home he declared that the treaty and covenant must be signed without the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t".

Since the nomination of Senator Harding and the announcement in his speech of acceptance that he believed the government should take measures to restore liberty bonds to par the market price of these securities has recovered about a third of their depreciation below par. In other words, upwards of $700,000,000 has been restored to the millions of bondholders.
